

Donald,

I want to thank you for all your help on my recent album. You have given me insights into my own music that I never had before we met. Your musical guidance, encouragement, and producing expertise have helped me become a much better artist, composer, and performer.

The minute I walked in the studio, I knew that great music would be created here. Ordinary became extraordinary and magical. Working with you and your state-of-the-art equipment have pushed and pulled my creativity and performance beyond its' limits.

In fact, you have given me a much deeper understanding of the true nature of all music – not just mine.

Thanks so much for all your help.
